

CVLGC FALL MEETING MINUTES October 11, 2023

Prior to the meeting, Kathi McKeown made a special presentation to Sug Ladd who is an original founding member and 35 year member of CVLGC. Kathi presented Sug with a framed picture signed by current league members, a memory book with lots of pictures, and a cash gift. Sug was made a honorary lifetime member of the league and she will only have to pay league fees for chip ins and birdies if she wishes to participate.

Toni Coleman, president, opened the meeting by reporting there is $235.11 in the league checking account to carry over into next year. Copies of Bette Niemi's Treasurer Report were available for review during the meeting.

Toni and the ladies present thanked Patrick and his staff for a great 2023 season.

Toni opened the floor for nominees to replace the standing executive board. The following members volunteered to form the 2024-2025 executive board – Joan Burks, president; Gail Blair – vice president; Kathi McKeown, treasurer; and sharing the secretary duties Barb Dames will handle the emails for the league and Chris Davidson will record the meeting minutes. The slate was accepted and the motion was approved and seconded. Toni and Elaine Hartmann, previous president and vice president, will be available to assist the new board as needed.

Kathi McKeown announced the ringer card winners. She also passed out the winning to participating members for birdies and chip-ins. Delia Kahle received the hole-in-one pot for her hole-in-one on number 17.

Elaine handed out Match Play and Club Championship prizes. Gail Blair won the Match Play tournament with Liz Catlett being the runner up and Delia Kahle is the club champion for 2023.

Elaine gave an update on the 2023 interclub results. Charlie Vettiner tied with Iroquois during the regular season competition. When a tiebreaker was performed, Iroquois was declared the 2023 Interclub Champions.

Barb Dames did a quick review of weekly games winners and reminding everyone to check the money book and to use their winnings on food or merchandise.

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting and it was seconded.

As Recorded by:
Elaine Hartmann
Vice President